

Local Missions

Clover Area Assistance Center (CAAC) is a local organization that provides an assortment of services to folks in need. CAAC compassionately assists disadvantaged individuals who live within the boundaries of the Clover School District in varying degrees of need with food, financial assistance, health services, and education.

Through local partnerships and collaborations, they strive to help people bridge the gap between dependence and self-sufficiency, and Bethel has been a faithful co-worker and supporter of CAAC for many years.

CAAC welcomes folks to come visit, get a tour of the operations, and needs volunteers as greeters and to stock shelves.

How can the Bethel Presbyterian body help CAAC:

- Food donations by individuals
- Financial contributions

In support of CAAC and to help stock their shelves before the school year begins, the deacons will be hosting a non-perishable food collection in the near future, watch for details to come. The collection details are listed below.

Collection items:

- Peanut butter crackers
- Individual size cereal
- Canned fruit
- Peanut butter
- Jelly
- Mac and cheese
- Soups

Let's help CAAC and be a blessing to this organization and our Clover community!
